(FOR KEY SEE REVERSE)

1. A number of the newly promoted officers of the armored troops and air force reserve, who had been released to the reserve at the end of 1953 after completing their active military service, were called up again.
2. This call up was carried out individually and all precautions were taken to keep it secret. Twenty persons were called up from Wrzeszcz (Gdansk).
3. In April 1954, the training of officers of the reserve was revived in the coastal zone. The training is taking place in Gdansk, once monthly during one afternoon. Officers are called up for this training by an individual notice in writing from the Gdansk District Recruiting Center (W.K.R.).
